

Deputy Chief

The Village of Oak Lawn is seeking a full-time individual to fill the position of Deputy Chief in the Oak Lawn Fire Department. This is a non-union position under direction of the Fire Chief. Oak Lawn residents who meet or exceed the knowledge, skills and experience are encouraged to apply.

Knowledge, Skills and Experience

The ideal candidate will be a progressive leader with a broad spectrum of administrative and operation experience, outgoing and effective communicator verbally and written form that proactively interacts with internal and external stakeholders, has a commitment to continuous improvement and innovation is essential. Applicants must have ten years of increasing responsible management and supervisory experience, including five years responsibility as a full-time Fire Chief, Deputy Chief or Battalion Chief required. Bachelors or Masters Degree in business or public administration, fire science or a combination of training, education and experience will be considered. A strong labor management background is essential with advanced certifications as an instructor is required.

Applicants will be required to pass a criminal background check and must be a United States Citizen.

Salary: $100,000 to $107,000 depending upon qualifications

The Village of Oak Lawn is seeking qualified applicants, without regard to sex, race, color or ethnic origin – an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Resumes only to:

Village of Oak Lawn
Attn: Human Resources
9446 S. Raymond Ave.
Oak Lawn, IL 60453
E-mail: jobs@oaklawn-il.gov

Position open until filled