

Senior Council Meeting Minutes

November 13, 2014

Meeting opened at 9:59 am. All were present except Cathy, Jen sat in for her. JoAnn read the minutes but needs one correction. The date for the Drury Lane Trip is not the 10th it is the 17th.

A motion was made to except the cost of the bus for Drury Lane $600. Price of bingo cards at $400. Was approved by the council. Bernie gave Joann a check for $400. To pick them up, also Check for $10 to cover cost of getting them.

They had a meeting with V.F.W. only to find out that now they say we will not be using the ballroom for our activities we will using the downstairs. That's not what they promised us. So we are starting all over, because that won't work. We will have to wait and see what happens.. . There is also a problem with the elevator.

Christmas Party Dec 4th food from Big Papa's not sure if it is donated or not. The office is trying to get a deal with Mariono's to do box lunch for us some months not sure yet exactly what.

We talked about Election we should have done this earlier so we could notify the members. Jen said she would make a couple fliers and post them in the rooms. We decided to just make up a few ballots instead of giving one to everyone we will make a announcement that they are available for anyone that wants one. Ballots will have name of present officers and a space below to put anyone you want to write in. Election will be at the Christmas party. Installation will be Jan15, as part of our regular meeting..

Winnie is going to call OLHS to see about the seniors getting a invite to their dress rehearsals for the plays that they put on. No Meeting in December Next meeting is Jan 15th. 10 am Senior Center Meeting adjourned at 10:53am
