District 123 Staff & Students Excited to be Back!

It might have been raining the morning of the first day of school, but that did not put a damper on District 123 school spirit. Teachers, staff, and students fought the rain as they entered the school building for day one of the new school year. The weather did not seem to bother anyone, as there were lots of smiles, hugs, and chatting to be found in the halls at District 123!
