We are looking forward to wonderful new things in the year ahead! Have you checked out our new website: www.OakLawn-IL.gov? It's completely re-done from the ground up with added features to enhance communication.

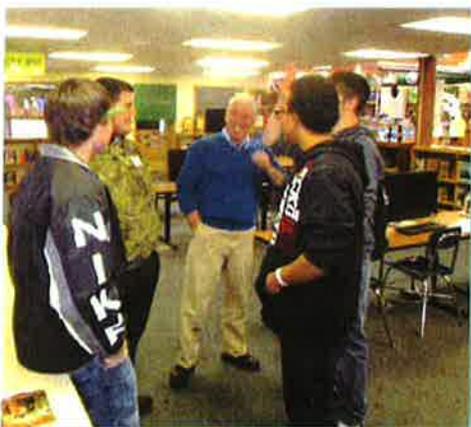

I wanted to share these photos from a recent Trade Jobs Fair at Oak Lawn Community High School. District 1 Trustee Tim Desmond helped organize this unique and first-time event.

There was also a logo contest held for the new Oak Lawn Jobs Program. Congratulations to logo contest winner Omar Abdelrahman. He won $100 for his awesome design pictured on the right.

I can't thank enough the businesses and unions that participated in both the Trade Jobs Fair and the Oak Lawn Jobs Program. It means so much to these young men and women to have opportunities.

Jobs Program

MISSION STATEMENT

"The Oak Lawn Jobs Program is a liaison between potential employees and local businesses. Our goal is to assist current high school students & recent graduates from Oak Lawn in pursuing a successful career, while benefiting our local business owners."

High School Students & Graduates ~ why participate in the Oak Lawn Jobs Program?

Besides the obvious benefit of a steady income, you will work with local businesses to learn new skills and develop the work ethic necessary for a successful career.

D123 Students bring harmony to Washington, IL

"It is with a cheerful heart and great thanks to all...to announce the grand total for collection efforts for the Washington, IL music students. Drum roll please... $8,051.06!"

The community performing arts and athletic clubs join OLHMS Music Department in raising money for music students affected by the November tornadoes in Washington, Illinois.

The destruction left many families with very little, including their music students' instruments and music supplies. "As a band teacher, I can't imagine how difficult that must be, on top of everything else the families are dealing with," expressed Mrs. Beth Lyons, former Washington, Illinois summer band teacher and current OLHMS Band Director.

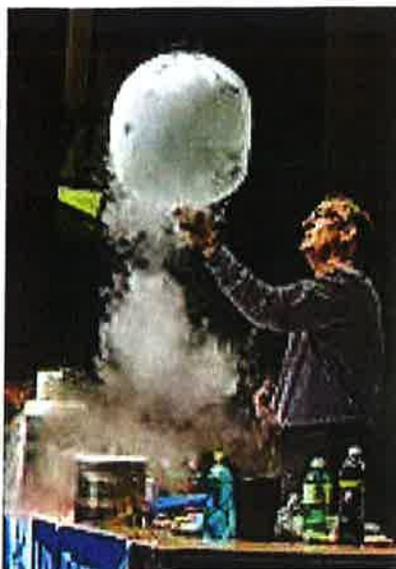

Mrs. Lyons was joined by a variety of local performing arts booster clubs in raising money during their winter performances. "I feel really excited...because 100% of our money is going to the band boosters in Washington, Illinois and given directly to those students who need assistance."

"It is with a cheerful heart and great thanks to all that I am able to announce the grand total for collection efforts for the Washington, IL music students...drum roll please... $8,051.06!"

"Words cannot express how incredible our community has been in support of reaching out to our long-distance music families in Washington, IL. I am more proud than I could ever describe. Thank you one and all!"

A special thanks to the following contributors that made this effort a success:

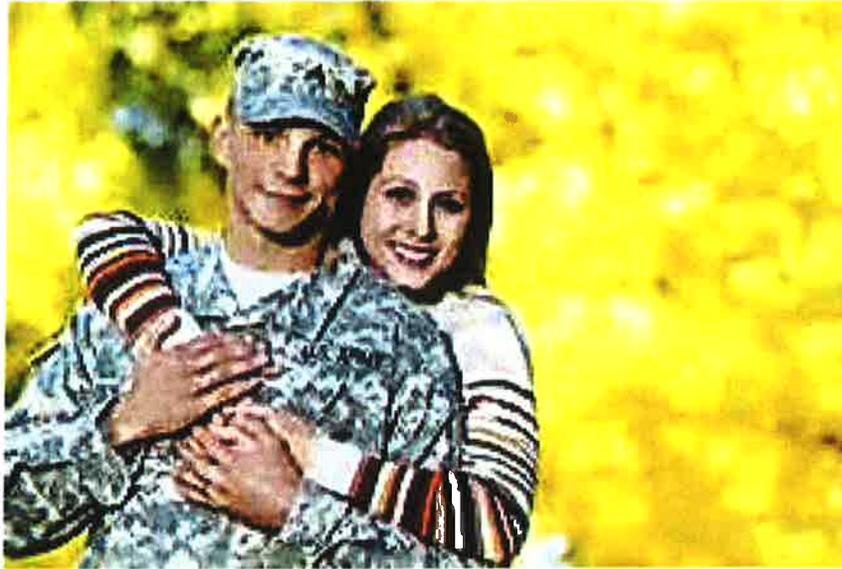

D123 Bands, OLHMS Choruses and Village Singers, D123 Education Foundation, Mr. George Quinlan, Jr., Oak Lawn Community High School Band, H. L. Richards Band, St. Lawrence Band, St. Rita Band, SXU Bands and Orchestra, Marist Band, Brother Rice Band, Mother McAuley Band, and Raiders Social Athletic Club.
